Martin Vander Weyer Governor 2024-25

Martin Vander Weyer is business editor and weekly Any Other Business columnist of The Spectator, for which he runs annual Economic Innovator Awards for UK entrepreneurs.

He is also a regular contributor to the Daily Telegraph, the Literary Review and the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography. He has recently published The Good, the Bad and the Greedy: Why We've Lost Faith in Capitalism and January Poet, a collection of his poetry.

A Yorkshireman of Flemish ancestry, Martin has had a long involvement in theatre, opera and music in the north of England, not least as a veteran amateur actor, a former chairman of the Ryedale Festival and trustee of Helmsley Arts Centre. He is also vice-chair of the Governors of Ampleforth College. In his first career, Martin spent 15 years as an investment banker in London, Brussels, the Far East and Eastern Europe.
